

University of Augsburg Law School

Summer Program in European and International Economic Law
Institute for European Legal Systems

Every year during June and July the University of Augsburg Law School offers a six-week summer program in European and International Economic Law.

Striving for academic excellence the program provides a unique international environment to skilled law students, who, in order to meet the increasing requirements of companies and law firms, want to study the principles of the European Legal System and learn to develop solutions in transnational legal matters.

During several „Talks of Practitioners,“ lawyers and legal advisors from renowned law firms and international companies discuss selected problems of international business law and provide an opportunity to network with potential employers.

Offered classes have included

- Introduction to European Law
- Introduction to the European Legal System
- International Economic Law
- European and International Company Law
- Law of Unfair Competition
- European and German Competition Law
- International Sale of Goods
- Transnational Litigation
- International Criminal Law
- Seminar on Law and Econom

All classes will be held in English.

In addition to the regular classes a variety of introductions to foreign legal systems are held by foreign lecturers and a mandatory German language course is scheduled.

Participants must have successfully completed their first year of law school. The number of participants is limited to 25.

Tuition for the Augsburg Summer Program is 500 Euro. For students from our partner universities tuition is waived.

At the end of the program each participant obtains a formal, detailed certificate.
